WHEN WAS FIRST OLD SETTLERS' DAY?

When was the first Old Settlers' Day in Campbell? According to authoritative reports, this annual celebration is the second oldest celebration in the history of California, younger only than the Rose parade in Pasadena. Both these celebrations have been held annually since they were begun.

In a search of records and old issues of the Campbell Press, Campbell Weekly and Campbell Visitor, the publishers have discovered that opinions about the original Old Settlers' Day vary from 1891 to 1896. Even old programs of the celebration carried contradicting dates.

Checking with Mrs. Charlotte W. Sutter, oldest resident of Campbell, we learned that the date, to the best of her memory, is 1895.

In a copy of the February 26, 1896, Campbell Weekly Visitor, there is pasted a letter dated 1895 and signed by Lillie F. Shaw, who, according to another issue of the paper, was the first postmaster of Campbell. The letter states that the first celebration was held on February 22 in Campbell Hall, and dinner was served in the new Millet building. "On July 4 of that same year—1895—a general picnic dinner with program was held in the Drier building, Alfred Holman being the principal speaker."

T. A. Cutting in his "History of Campbell" says "the first Old Settlers' Day was held in 1895 at the suggestion of E. E. White, who then operated the lumber yard."

All these are pretty authoritative sources of information. Turning to the OSD printed program for February 22, 1913, we found a statement on the back that the event was first observed "on the fourth of July, 1893, on the grounds of the Campbell Fruit Growers' Union. The second meeting was held at the YMCA Hall the following year on Washington's Birthday when the basket noon-day lunch was inaugurated. The observance of February 22 and the basket lunch have ever since been features of the celebration. It remained, however, for the third annual gathering under the leadership and inspiration of our lamented friend, E. E. White, who was the prime mover in the organization of the celebration to bring out the recitals of experiences and hardships that the pioneers underwent in crossing the plains and in establishing their homes in this new and beautiful garden of the west."

Other programs for other years indicate still other inaugural dates for the celebration, with no additional information, but we believe the above program note does, in a way, corroborate the 1895 date, since it contains the statement about E. E. White introducing the old settlers' theme in the third year of the observance, which would be 1895. Prior to that time, first on July 4, 1893, and next on February 22, 1894, there were basket lunches, but the OSD theme evidently came in 1895.

Therefore, taking our cue from the authorities, we note that the community is now about to observe the 57th annual Old Settlers' Day.

WHITEWAY GETS APPROVAL AFTER SEPTEMBER 1

County Supervisors approved request of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce that additional street lights be installed on Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road, when they met Tuesday. The project, sponsored by the local chamber, will make a well lighted white-way of the two business area streets.

Guide Dogs To Give Demonstration In Campbell This Afternoon

To permit residents of Campbell to see guide dogs in their "work" of leading the blind, a demonstration will be held on Friday, February 16 from 1 to 1:30 p.m., corner of Campbell avenue and First street, Mrs. M. E. Haskins, Santa Clara County chairman of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., has announced.

The demonstration will be given by trainers and apprentice trainers of the organization, using guide dogs which are now being trained before being given to a blind person.

Mrs. Haskins said that Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. is now conducting its annual membership campaign to raise funds so that it can continue to train guide dogs which are given without cost to the blind.

"We hope that the public will take advantage of the opportunity of seeing these wonderful guide dogs in action," said Mrs. Haskins. "It is only through seeing them and in talking to the trainers that full appreciation of the intelligence, understanding and friendliness of these guide dogs can be realized. To a blind person a guide dog is the most greatly desired possession, for to him it means personal freedom to go whenever and wherever he wishes."

Campbell members of the Santa Clara County Committee of the organization are: Mrs. Edward J. Nelson, Mrs. E. P. Cook and Mrs. A. L. Gladding.

BRIDE'S GOWN

The bride wore a gown of chantilly lace for her wedding. A Peter Pan collar accented the fitted bodice and the skirt was made with three tiers of the lace, each tier edged with nylon net pleating. Her fingertip veil was held by a lace cap edged with seed pearls and orange blossoms.

Mary Margaret Werthman, the flower girl, was dressed in a pale green net frock styled like that of the bride, and she carried a basket of pale pink rosebuds.

Candlelighters were Orva La Mar and Virginia Mills, who wore satin frocks of champagne and emerald green. The bride's book was carried by Donald Dunton, cousin of the bride.

Her maid of honor was Miss Shirley Pannkoek, who wore a gown of white net over taffeta, and a green stole. Her bouquet was of green carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Douglas Strong, Mrs. Franklin Hale and Miss Barbara Dunton, cousin of the bride. All wore gowns of net over white taffeta and carried bouquets of light green carnations.

Dale La Mar, as best man, attended his brother. Guests were escorted by Paul Tichenor and Richard Tichenor, cousins of the bride, and Franklin Hale.

Mrs. Walter Gadsby sang "Grace Be With Thee" and "O, Promise Me." Mrs. David Sanders played the wedding music on the organ.

Mrs. Oliver C. Jensen, mother of the bride, chose a navy print dress with tunic. The collar and cuffs were of faille, and she wore a straw picture hat. Her accessories were navy and she wore a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Victor La Mar of San Jose, mother of the bridegroom, selected a navy blue suit dress with white piping and navy straw hat. Her accessories were blue and she wore a white orchid corsage.

Calla lilies and white camellias were used in the decorations at the Country Woman's clubhouse where the wedding reception took place. The couple cut a four-tiered wedding cake.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, the new Mrs. La Mar was wearing a navy blue knitted dress with white straw hat, blue calf accessories and white gloves.

Social Meeting

St. Lucy's Evening Guild will have its next social meeting on Wednesday, February 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Harold Freitas, Williams Road, San Jose. Mrs. Freitas will be assisted by Mrs. Willis Eggers. Members will exchange valentine handkerchiefs.

A fund to be used for the purchase of some medium of entertainment that can be enjoyed by all the little patients in the pediatrics ward at county hospital.

Special emphasis was given this fund at the membership tea held recently at the home of Mrs. H. T. Miller, Campbell, when Mrs. Walter Elkey presented a check to the guild from the ladies of the Star Circle, Campbell Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. "It was most gratifying because only by such generous donations can the guild expect to reach their goal," said guild members. An outstanding bit of entertainment was presented at the tea in the form of a puppet show by the Misses Antisdel and Herron, of Los Altos. These two young women are professional puppeteers, and have recently come here from Cleveland, Ohio. The puppets are known as the "Daumier Puppets," and are a wonderful media of entertainment.

Special thanks has also been extended to the Service League for the gift of three bedside radios. These radios were presented to the guild in the memory of Barbara Bradford, and do much to help some of the older children pass many otherwise dull and lonely hours.

A reminder is issued at this time to all non-active members, that their yearly dues can be mailed to Mrs. Vincent Gorman, 341 Henry Avenue, San Jose.

A significant step in the development of the program of the Children's Service Guild is the establishment of a special project

As part of the "Three R's" program for the months of January, February and March, a panel discussion on present day methods of teaching reading was presented at the San Tomas Parent-Teacher Association meeting January 18.

Mrs. Helen Petersen and Mrs. Anne Merieder, special teachers for the Campbell School District, explained how phonics or word analysis is taught, and exhibited charts, books and materials used in the course. This was followed by a free discussion conducted by a committee composed of Mr. William Shuey Jr., principal and chairman for the day; Miss Joan Pfeiffer, sixth grade teacher; Miss Margaret Enas, first grade teacher; Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Merieder, Mrs. Lassen, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Greeson.

Another fine demonstration was given by Mrs. Doris Hubbard, first grade teacher, and a group of her pupils.

Fifth grade students presented an interesting skit showing an actual meeting of the Book Club which has been formed at San Tomas School. Gary Penn, Book Club president, gave a review of "Wild Horse Roundup," a book obtained for the club through efforts of the PTA.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Long and her committee. Mrs. Chester Brott was the hostess.

Prior to the reading program a short business meeting was conducted, during which Mrs. Chris Miller and her committee made preparations for the panel discussion. Before the meeting began, the school classrooms had open house for visiting parents.

LOCAL CAGER INJURED

George Stein, former McCune Citrus basketball star and Santa Clara university great, suffered facial cuts and head lacerations last Saturday when the car in which he was a passenger overturned near Gilroy.

Stein, now a soldier stationed at Fort Ord, paced McCune to the first-half championship of the Campbell Senior Loop before taking his present position with the Army.

He and two other erstwhile Bronco athletes, Harv and Harold Toso, were enroute to San Jose for the Santa Clara-Loyola basketball game when the car, driven by Harold Toso, overturned five miles south of Gilroy. The trio were taken to the Fort Ord hospital.

BASKETBALL BABES

Fans witnessing the San Jose State-COP cage contest last Saturday night were treated to some top-notch midget basketball during halftime.

The mighty Campbell Comets battled an Alum Rock quint in a high-scoring tilt that saw the local clan upset, 6-2.

These kids, ranging from 10 to 13 years in age, put on a show that drew much applause from the appreciative crowd. Considering the fact that not a single lad weighed more than 80 pounds the exhibit was even more impressive. Some of the smaller boys had trouble enough seeing over the top of the ball let alone seeing that leather monstrosity, but for sure.

Granted at times the hardwood court looked like a football field. Copying a cue from some grid powers, the George Mikans and Hank Luisettis of tomorrow employed the two-plateau system but overlooked one small detail. Instead of reporting to the proper officials and waiting for a time-out, the eager ones jumped into the fray on a moment's notice. Several times about 18 to 20 players joined in combined battle... new faces, new rules.

Judging from the reception they received the two youthful teams probably will return for future games at Spartan gym.

KNITTING NEXT?

Billy Wilson, former Campbell high grid and cage star, is known throughout sporting circles for his athletic exploits. But last week, the Snuffer displayed profound talent in another collegiate sport. He copped the heavyweight wrestling championship of the Independent league during the annual SJS Novice Mat Tourney.

The manner in which he won gave Coach Ted Mumby little time to shake his head and regret that the Buc graduate was not out for the varsity grappling squad. Wilson pinned his heavier foe within 45 seconds without musing a hair.

At this writing, Wilson is negotiating with Buck Shaw, head football coach of the San Francisco 49ers. The pro gridder drafted the Spartan ace while he was only a junior last season. Wilson has expressed a strong desire to play pro ball. His coach, Bob Branzan, believes that the lanky end has all the qualifications of a great pro flanker. He said that he would be greatly surprised if Wilson did not make the '49er line-up.

McCUNE IN BENEFIT

The leading local amateur quintet, McCune Citrus, beat a powerful Fort Ord team 58 to 52 in a benefit game in Santa Cruz Sunday evening. Paced by Bob Wuesthoff, the winners led all the way after building a 12-point margin at halftime.

Proceeds from the contest went for recreation equipment for disabled veterans at Oak Knoll and Letterman hospitals. The evening program was sponsored by Sports-caster Ira Blue and all players and officials contributed their services.

CAPABLE COACH

When Campbell high's baseball hopefuls start spring practice next week they will find themselves under a capable baseball coach, one with a creditable playing background. George Miskulin, currently directing the Buc wrestling horde, will take over the diamond forces for the first time Monday afternoon. In 1946 he patrolled centerfield for the San Jose State Spartans. While in his senior year at Sacramento in 1941, Miskulin was picked to the All-City mythical team. Incidentally, several of his teammates on that squad are doing satisfactorily in the major leagues.

Tommy Glaviano is now holding down third base for the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League. Bruce Edwards is with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Busy Bee Threat In 'A' League Race

McCune Citrus and Tony's Busy Bee currently are tied for the lead in second-half play in the A league of the Campbell Senior Basketball league with two straight wins apiece.

McCune, unbeaten champs of the first half, scored an easy win over Rossi's Thursday night, 51 to 20. Bob Graves, new McCune forward, led the way with 17 points, followed by teammate Carl Kaiser's 14 markers.

At halftime the winners held a potent 26-8 margin that they soon increased.

Tony's loom as a serious threat with several new faces dotting the line-up. They knocked Jones' Service out of the undefeated ranks with a 43 to 34 win.

After a tight first half that had them ahead by two points, 23-21, the Bees spurred for 13 points in the third quarter which proved the margin of victory. Ed Maggetti paced the winners with 12 points. But scoring honors went to Tony Giammona, Jones', who tallied 15 markers on six buckets and three free tosses.

Led by Al Vargo's 17 points, the Los Gatos Merchants trimmed Western Gravel 46 to 34 in the final game of the night.

The winners trailed 20-16 at intermission but during third-period play, Vargo got hot and scored two quick buckets to pace a belated rally. In all, he tallied seven of his eight baskets in the last half, four of them coming late in the fourth period.

Bob Burgestrom was leading point getter for the gravelmen with 14 points on five buckets and four charity tosses.

SCVAL Mat Tourney Set For Local Gym Tomorrow; Bucs Enter 10-Man Team

A team of 10 Campbell high grapplers will attempt to wrestle away their share of the SCVAL mat titles when the Valley's annual tourney holds forth at the local gym tomorrow afternoon and evening.

A total of 77 matmen will be on hand to vie for individual and school championships, George Miskulin, Buc mentor, said yesterday.

The affair marks the second successive year that SCVAL officials have nominated the local school as host team.

Preliminary matches start at

MAT MENTOR... Hoping to lead the Campbell high school wrestling squad to a SCVAL championship tomorrow is George Miskulin in his first year as Buc grappling head. The husky ex-San Jose State athlete learned his mat lore from Ted Mumby, one of the leading collegiate wrestling coaches in the nation. Miskulin will send 10 men into the fray to be held at the local gym in the afternoon and evening.

1:00 o'clock in the afternoon with the public invited free of charge. But an admission price of 50 cents will be charged for the finals tomorrow night. Students will be charged 25 cents.

Several intra-squad challenge matches were held by Miskulin to determine the Campbell representatives. Sam Tashima outlasted George Cadena in a 145-lb. match while Sam Lopez, leading Buc heavyweight, returned to action after a month's layoff due to injuries.

Miskulin announced the following local lineup: Pete Vossler (112-lbs.), Syl Barton (120); Dick Farnham (128); Dan Duarte (133); Abe Lopez (138); Tashima (145); Al Stepovich (154); Duane Lynes (165); Andy David (175); and Lopez, heavyweight. Campbell will not field a 103-lb. man.

Vossler and Duarte are Valley champs of last year. They will not defend their crowns since both have moved up one weight classification. Vossler copped the 103-lb. title last year while Duarte won the 128-lb. championship.

The winners of each of the 11 divisions will receive gold medals while the runnersup will receive silver awards.

At this writing four schools rule as pre-tourney favorites with Gilroy maintaining the role of "the" school to beat. Santa Clara, Fremont, and Campbell should figure heavily in the final outcome. The Indians are defending titlists. Miskulin stated that plenty of entertainment between matches will be provided.

CUHS Cage Coach Convalescing After Operation

Bert Robinson, head basketball coach at Campbell high school, is recuperating satisfactorily at his home following a spine operation last Thursday in a San Jose hospital.

He returned home Tuesday afternoon and is reported to be recovering ahead of schedule. There is a slight possibility that he may return to the cage against Fremont high.

Robinson had a spinal disc that had been pinching a sensory muscle removed from the small of his back. Whenever he moved suddenly or engaged in strenuous exercise, Robinson suffered the pain in his back and left hip.

The injury was sustained either in his football days or during a swimming session last summer.

Upset-Minded Cagers Invade Fremont Indians Tonight; Bow To Acorns, 25-22

Out of contention for SCVAL honors, the Campbell high school basketball quintet adopts the role of spoilers tonight when they invade Sunnyvale to battle the potent Fremont Indians.

The local hardwood horde lost their last title hope Friday when they were upset by Live Oak 25 to 22 in a slow-moving game held on the local premises.

The Bucs suffered a let-down after a previous high week that found them trimming San Jose Tech and tripping Lincoln, leaders of the PAL at the time.

Tomorrow's tilt may be decided upon the effect of guard thrown around Shelley Beebe, Indian ace forward who is pacing all Valley scorers. He has averaged approximately 18 points per league game and is well on his way to setting a new SCVAL scoring mark. Beebe was named on the 1950 All-SCVAL quintet last season.

In the absence of Head Coach Bert Robinson, Junior Morgan, assistant cage mentor will direct the local crew. Tentative starting line-up for Campbell will have Jack Bray at center, Nick Tersigni and Len McKully, forwards, and Frank Mantia and John Walters, guards.

In the low scoring loss to Live Oak, the Bucs were able to hit for a mere six field goals throughout the entire game. The winners fared a little better, netting one more basket.

Halftime score found the Live Oak five sporting a two-point margin, 12-10. Trailing by one point, 18-17, going into the final quarter, the Bucs were able to hit for only five points, all by Bray, a field goal and three free throws. The Acorns accounted for seven tallies in the last period to assure victory.

led all scorers with 10 points on Bray was high man for the Bucs with nine points, on two buckets and five free tosses. Ray LaBrucherie, lanky Acorn center, three field goals and four charity shots.

A good paycheck, interesting work, pleasant associations, a fine Benefit Plan—these are part of a telephone job

Good people make good telephone service

Why more than half of each dollar we take in goes to employees

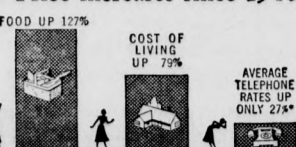

1. In a service business like the telephone business, many people must pool many talents to keep calls moving smoothly. Matter of fact, meeting the West's demands for service has made us one of the West's largest employers. That means a mighty big payroll... particularly when you consider that we can attract and keep the capable people we need only with good wages and top-notch working conditions.

2. Today, better than half of each dollar you pay for service goes to employees in wages and other expenses such as their company-paid Benefit Plan. That more than in most businesses. In manufacturing, for example, salary and wage costs average about 24 cent. But in the telephone business, the many people-skilled people—needed to do the right job for the West, make employee costs our largest expense.

3. Making telephone jobs good jobs is a policy that means much to the nation today...when a strong telephone system, manned by skilled people, is particularly important in helping our industries and military services meet the big problem of national defense. And, even though the costs of providing telephone service have shot up sharply, telephone rates on the average have gone up less than half as much as the cost of living generally. Your telephone remains one of the best buys in your budget.

Price increases since 1940

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

Everyone, including program participants and the on-lookers, is invited to take part in the Old Settlers' luncheon at 11:45 a.m. in the grammar school cafeteria. Charge per person will be 50c. Neil Royer is chairman, assisted by Florence Fuller and Dave Sanders.

The big show of the day, the Old Settlers' Day parade, will begin at 1 p.m. at Campbell Avenue and Los Gatos Creek bridge. Judges and parade officials will occupy the reviewing stand on the Campbell Grammar School grounds.

FOLK DANCING

Immediately after the parade, at 2 p.m., there will be a folk dance festival in the high school gymnasium, with many experienced folk dance groups from the bay area participating. Marion Harp is chairman, assisted by Lloyd Brown. This program will run until 5:30 p.m., and will resume at 7:30 for a two-hour program.

Following the parade, scheduled to end about 2 p.m., members of the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club, sponsors of Queen Campbell, will entertain at tea and a social hour for the Queen and all registered old settlers, only. This will take place in the Country Woman's clubhouse.

From 2:45 to 3:15 p.m. there will be a music festival in the Campbell grammar school auditorium. Committee members are Dick Gordon, chairman, Jack Barrett, Ben Zeigler and Lillian McCall.

Pancake and sausage dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Don Graciar, chairman. Everyone is invited to attend.

VARIETY SHOW

A gala variety show, to be presented on the evenings of February 21 and 22, will conclude Friday's program at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Laurence J. Hill is the chairman, with George Kemp in charge of tickets. High School dramatics instructor Kenneth Wallace will be the director for the program which will consist of selections by the school orchestra directed by Frank Triana; numbers by a jazz band directed by Willard LeCroy; tap dances by Marilyn Graham and Marty Strong, and violin selections by Rudy Foglia.

Vocalists will be Gayle LaBarbera, Carol Bohnet and Betty McCrary. Jack Bray, Frank Mantia and George Nelson will present a skit. Specialty acts will be performed by Lee McGowan and Charlotte Smith, and Marlene Moore, Jack and Sandra Bray will dance.

Campbell Footlighters Club will present a one-act comedy, "Kill the Old Red Rooster," for the second half of the show.

During the day Kangaroo Court Judge Martin S. Walsh and his special deputies will enforce the whiskerino ruling among the gentlemen present. Those defying the law will be fined.

GRANGERS ENJOY PROGRAM GIVEN BY CUHS STUDENTS

Orchard City Grange had a Valentine Day party Tuesday evening at the IOOF Hall, and those attending were dressed in costumes befitting the occasion. Costumes represented such types as Peck's Bad Boy and "The Thing."

A group of Campbell High School students, who put on a program of songs, accordion selections, pantomime and tap dancing, included Bob Mulberry, Carlo Boncora, Dick Lansdale, Harry Ruseno, Frank Weltz, Yvonne Barcus, Diane Mayo, Rose Marie Maguire, Sue Hathorn, Gayle LaBarbera, Charlotte Smith, Jack and Sandra Bray. They were directed by the dramatic coach, Mr. Kenneth Wallace.

Grange Lecturer A. J. Emery directed the costume contest. Winners were Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Skillman, Mrs. Kathryn Shadle and Richard Morrill Jr.

During the business meeting, Judge Martin S. Walsh, public affairs chairman, reported on the Campbell Old Settlers' Day, the second oldest continuous celebration in the state, to be held on Thursday, February 22.

Grangers voted to oppose removal of the women's penitentiary from Tehachapi to any other location due to the tremendous strain on California's budget.

Charles S. Gubser, 29th District Assemblyman, will be in Campbell from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on February 20, in the Campbell Press building.

BUSINESS SESSION
The Grange business organization announced that GBO certificates are redeemable in the following numbers: A-1 to A-1456. Those holding such certificates should send them to 2101 Stockton Boulevard, Sacramento.

Word has been received from the National Grange that a subscription drive for the National Grange Monthly is being conducted. The Grange passed a resolution initiated by Cupertino Grange opposing county ordinances which would restrict buildings on farms of 10 acres or less.

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., is conducting a membership drive. Individual memberships are payable at $58 Sutter, San Francisco.

Almaden Grange will have a dance on February 24, with Marvin Keesling supplying the recorded music. Pomona Grange Home Economics Club will meet in Sunnyvale on February 24. Third and fourth degrees will be conferred by Mount Hamilton degree team at Cupertino Grange on February 23.

Valentine refreshments were served in the banquet hall by H. A. Butts, Mrs. Jessie McChesney and Mrs. Clara Baldwin.

A woman never knows what kind of dress she does not like until she buys it.

Guide Dog Film

Training of Guide Dogs for the Blind was depicted in a film shown at the Campbell Rotary Club's noon meeting Monday, Mrs. E. J. Nelson, chairman of the Campbell drive to raise funds for the guide dogs program, was the guest speaker.

The film showed how the dogs are bred and trained. Young dogs are placed in homes near the training center to give the future guide dogs and opportunity to grow up in a family atmosphere. When the dog is taken from the family for training, he is generally replaced by another, younger dog.

An average of one dog in six actually completes the training period and is approved for guide dog work. The Rotarians learned. Most successful type of dog for the responsible job of leading a blind person is the female German shepherd.

Also shown in the film was training of the blind person to work with the dog. Mrs. Nelson spoke on the sponsoring organization, its purposes and the need for funds to carry on this important service to blind veterans and other deserving persons.

Beans are beans no matter how you may serve them, and few people will travel 400 miles for a bean—just ask any Navy man—nevertheless, there's a couple down in Los Angeles who'll be heading this way later in the month to acquire the beans.

All of which goes to prove that husbands should be happy when the little lady spots a bargain, even though the cost of taking advantage of the bargain often puts it in the luxury class. Thus, this month's Campbell Press Dollar Days special brought the news of local bargains to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Chase in Los Angeles.

Shortly thereafter, Field's Fine Foods here was in receipt of the following wire sent posthaste by the lady in the City of the Angels: "Regarding your dollar day special in Campbell Press save us one order beans will pick up Washington's birthday—Rachel and Alfred."
